Ladies in this heavenly climate what is more suitable to your gentlemen friends, than a pair of slippers? Inspect the stock carried by the Manufacturer's Shoe Co. The company is the largest shoe concern in New Honolulu. It has no rivals. Its stock is the largest, the most carefully selected and the best. If in search of shoes call on it. See its slipper announcement on page 8.

If applause and hearty laughter are a criterion then the large audience present at the Orpheum on last Saturday evening was highly pleased at the new bill of events presented for consideration. All of the performers endeavored to please and the efforts of May Ashley and Jim Post were rewarded by the presentation of floral tributes. The same bill tonight and tomorrow night.

The steamer City of Columbia libels came before Judge Perry on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Kinney submitted the draft of an agreement to release all of the crew from further obligation to serve the vessel without any prejudice to their claims for wages. This was accepted by all the attorneys in the different cases who were present. It was to be announced later whether absent counsel assented. The Court appointed D. H. Case as master to take evidence on accounts between the steamship and the men. He opened his court this morning.
